

Commissioner Michelle Nusum-Smith

Michelle is a nonprofit leader, consultant, coach and trainer with nearly 20 years in the nonprofit sector. A graduate of the Honors Program at Coppin State University where she earned a Bachelor's degree in Management Science with a minor in marketing, Michelle currently serves as the Assistant Director of Corporate Relations at the Frederick Community College Foundation. Passionate about the nonprofit community, she's is the self-proclaimed "Do-gooder who helps do-gooders to do good." Michelle is the owner and principal consultant at Frederick-based The Word Woman LLC, a nonprofit consulting company. She is a member of the Grants Professionals Association, the Association of Fundraising Professionals, and Maryland Nonprofits. Michelle resides in Frederick with her husband, Ken. They have two daughters, Megan and Kendyll.